Consolidated Exchange.

While many stocks closed from their best prices in the closing dealings on the consolidated stock exchange yesterday, and gains for the day were the rule, with the tone generally firm.

International Mercantile Marine preferred.

With nearly 1,000 shares of that stock changing hands, it attained a high of 27, which compared with an opening price of 24 1/2, and then rose to 25 1/2, but closed at 26 1/4.

Mexican Petroleum.

Mexican Petroleum rose sharply for a time. It opened at 10 1/2, which was a point above its closing of the day before. Following a reaction to that, it advanced to 10 3/4, but it closed at 10 1/2.

American Smelting and Refining.

American Smelting and Refining opened at 9 1/2, up 1/2 point from Wednesday. After touching 9 3/4, it advanced to 9 1/2, but it closed at 9 1/4.

United States Steel common.

United States Steel common had a comparatively narrow price range, but with its opening and closing prices at a high was 32 1/2 and its low 32 1/4.
